The flowers this morning are given to the Glory of Almighty God. If you would like to make a special donation of flowers, please see Wade, and your intentions will be named in the bulletin.

✠ ✠ ✠ ✠

We welcome our visitors and guests this morning. We are glad you are with us today. Please let the clergy know if you would like a call or visit. If you would like to receive the monthly newsletter, please provide your address. A coffee hour is held in the parish hall after the 11 a.m. liturgy.

✠ ✠ ✠ ✠

The men's ministry meets the second Saturday of each month at 9:00 a.m. The day serves as a parish work day, a time to discuss parish business and is an opportunity to plan and participate in community outreach. Breakfast is served.

✠ ✠ ✠ ✠

The Adult Education group is studying The Way of the Cross, focusing on the biblical account of the last days of Christ and the people who played a major role in those events. The class meets on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. All are encouraged to attend.

✠ ✠ ✠ ✠

We have another couple of outreach opportunities. The Anglican Catholic Mission in Nairobi has asked for some basic items that they are in need of. Our Redeemer is responding to the call by collecting soap for the missionaries. Also, because of some recent demand from needy people in the community, we have started a food bank and are storing non perishable food for when the need arises. Please remember these outreach opportunities the next time you are at the grocery store.

The church has a new website, <http://www.ourredeemeracc.org>. Many thanks to Vanessa and Chuck Fernandez for getting this up and running.

Saturday is the Feast of St. Isadore. Isadore, the most learned man of his time and the surpassing Doctor of Spain, was born in the sixth century, perhaps at Carthage, where his father was the governour of the province. It was Isadore who fostered in Spain the growth of Christian culture amidst the barbarism of Europe which had resulted from the conquests of the Visigoths. He presided at the fourth Council of Toledo in 633, where he succeeded in enacting a decree that a cathedral school should be established in every diocese, to teach every known branch of knowledge; that is, the liberal arts with law and medicine, as well as Greek and Hebrew. He finished the work of converting the Goths from Arianism, and in 619, at the second Council of Seville, stamped out the strange heresy of the Acephali which was just then arising. He was a great example in the episcopate of all good works, and zealously labored for the restoration of ecclesiastical discipline. After governing his See for about forty years, he passed to heaven at Seville in the year 636 and was buried in his cathedral church. Many years later, when the Moors had overrun that region, his relics were ransomed at a great price, and enshrined at Leon, where they are still venerated.
